Dear Johnny Appleseed Vendor,

At this time, we are moving forward with our plans for the JAF. The dates are Sept. 18 & 19th. We are hoping with the fact that it is later in the year, we will be able to hold our event.

We know that we will have to have more social distancing than before. Unfortunately, that means we cannot take as many vendors as before.

If you have paid and the numbers do go back up in the summer, you will get a full refund if we have to cancel the festival. We know it has been very tough for you too.

So right now we are thinking positive and getting everything in order. Hope we have a very successful festival and we all make up for one lost year!!!

Respectfully yours,
